

5 fun ways to help your child

AVOID THE SUMMER SLIDE

READ

Grab a book and find unique places to read

- Park
- Coffee shop
- Ice cream shop
- Let your child pick a spot
- Restaurant menu

MUSEUMS & FESTIVALS

Think outside the box when looking for ideas.

- Summer arts festival
- Art museum
- Children's museum
- Outdoor concert

PLAY BOARD GAMES

Playing board games can build critical thinking skills and social-emotional skills.

- Word games build vocabulary and spelling
- Practice math skills Chutes N Ladders
- Create a board game at home

COOKING

Cooking can teach children healthy eating habits, practice math skills, learn how to follow directions.

- Try different foods
- Following directions using a recipe
- Kids plan a menu for family